Webmedx Honors Two AHIMA Presidents with Endowed Scholarship and HIMSS Reception

2009 Best in KLAS company supports AHIMA Foundation and sends message of appreciation to HIM customers and medical transcription industry.*

Atlanta, GA (February 16, 2010) – Webmedx, the 4th largest medical transcription company and the only documentation technology and service provider to offer a 100%, U.S.-based workforce, today announced a platinum-level sponsorship and philanthropic support of AHIMA (American Health Information Management Association) and the AHIMA Foundation. The company's two-pronged commitment to AHIMA and the Foundation honors outgoing president, Linda L. Kloss, RHIA, CAE, FAHIMA and incoming president, Alan F. Dowling, PhD.

"First and foremost, Webmedx is making a significant contribution to the Linda Kloss Honorary Endowed Scholarship to acknowledge her outstanding leadership over the past fifteen years. She has had a tremendous impact in health information management while also building a legacy that will sustain the future of the profession," mentions Sean Carroll, CEO, Webmedx. Additionally, the company is recognizing incoming president Dowling by sponsoring the annual AHIMA Member Reception at HIMSS10 where he will be officially honored and welcomed. Both presidents will be in attendance at this important, milestone reception. All past and present AHIMA members are invited to attend.

AHIMA Member Reception
Tuesday, March 2, 2010, 5:30 – 7:30 PM
OMNI Hotel - CNN Center, Redwood Room
Atlanta, Georgia

"As a company, we were honored this year when our customers' ratings ranked Webmedx as Best in KLAS for our outsourced transcription services," mentions Carroll. "Our commitment to AHIMA sponsorship is one way that Webmedx can thank AHIMA, our customers and the health information management industry for their participation in our success and continued growth," he concludes. While the medical transcription industry is in transition and upheaval, AHIMA and Webmedx remain on the cusp of industry changes to identify solutions for healthcare providers and create new roles ensuring the continued relevance of HIM, medical transcriptionist and clinical documentation editor professionals.
